

Youth Forum 2008
“Planning Our Future: Tag! You’re It!”
Saturday, April 19, 2008
10:30 AM to 3:00 PM

City of San Diego, Environmental Services
Green Building, 1st Floor Auditorium
9601 Ridgehaven Ct, San Diego, CA

Agenda

10:30      Registration, Ecological Footprint Quiz, Environmental Game, Survey

11:00      Introduction – Linda Giannelli Pratt, Chief Program Manager,
City of San Diego Environmental Services Department

11:10      Introduction of Speakers/Panel Members – Al Hurt, Vice President, Western Region Operations, Engineering & Environment, Inc.

5-10 minutes
each

Education programs/preparation for the field

- Matt Rahn, Director of Research and Education, College of Sciences, SDSU
- Jane Teranes, Associate Director, Environmental Systems Program, UCSD

Business/industry/career opportunities

- Kamala Kuresman, Business Development Manager, Nolte Associates, Inc.
- Julie Byford, Sea World
- Christina Schaefer, Director of Biological Resources, Technology Associates International Corporation

Government opportunities

- Paul Manasjan- Airport Authority

Question and Answers

12:15      Student Panel

12:45      Working Lunch

Discuss/review results of Footprint Quiz, with gift card drawing Announce grant competition winners

1:15      DECA Project Presentation – Chris Condrón, Rancho Bernardo High School student, DECA Project Team Leader

1:30      Councilmember Scott Peters, District One, will speak on current issues that will affect the sustainability of the region, and provide time for Q&A from Students

2:30-3:00      Wrap-up, Summary

PURPOSE: To highlight for high school students the academic and career opportunities in the field of environmental protection.